Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficacy of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

THE THAW TRIAL.

The lack of unanimity between Mrs. Harry Thaw and her mother as to what stand the latter will take at the trial of Stanford White's murderer, was distressingly in evidence in New York yesterday. With the ordeal of the young millionaire only three weeks away the defense's calculations are unbalanced and indeterminate, because of the enigma presented by the attitude of Mrs. Charles J. Holman, the mother of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw.

The daughter is steadfast in the belief that Mrs. Holman will not consent to give evidence damaging to Thaw. Mr. Mr. Holman declared yesterday.

"My wife will be at the trial, and, if called upon as a witness, will tell the truth. Nothing can swerve her from her purpose. She has suffered more than the public has any idea of."

This means that Mrs. Holman can tell a story which will be disastrous to the theory that the defense will offer, which comprehends that it was White's treatment of Evelyn Nesbit that drove Thaw into the hot madness that culminated when he shot White.

Letters of Mrs. Holman to White told with circumstances, how Thaw had maltreated and abused, physically and verbally, the slight girl whom he afterwards married. In these letters Mrs. Holman made no secret of her detestation and abhorrence toward Thaw. From sources that are reliable it is learned that Mrs. Holman's mood toward Thaw has not changed, and that she will not say one word in his favor. Positively, she will be against him. She will tell her story to the jury and let the deductions be drawn.

It is puzzling the prosecution to tell why Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw assumes to be so positive that her mother will help Thaw. The estrangement between the mother and daughter was complete before the murder, and the breach has not been healed. Mrs. Holman has not seen or communicated with Harry Thaw's wife since the murder.

Consternation prevailed among those fighting for the defense of Thaw yesterday when it was announced that Mrs. Holman was going to New York to testify against Thaw. Mrs. Thaw said:

"If District Attorney Jerome says my mother is coming to New York to assist in the prosecution of my husband he is telling an untruth."

Archbishop Ryan Arraigns French Government.

Yesterday's New Year's reception to Archbishop Ryan in Philadelphia was made notable by a scathing arraignment by the archbishop of the French government's treatment of the Catholic Church. Denouncing the officials of the present government as infidels, whom he considered worse than pagans, the archbishop expressed the hope that a religious awakening in France would soon overthrow the oppressors of the christian religion.

As an example of the tyranny which he said had been visited upon Catholic institutions, there he cited an experience of a prominent American who, while inspecting a hospital in Paris, found a dying patient begging a sister of charity to place a crucifix at the foot of his cot, that he might have more fortitude in enduring his sufferings.

"The American, who, by the way, was a Protestant, asked the sister why she did not grant the suffering man's request," continued the archbishop.

"The noble woman, who had nursed the dying man for days, burst into tears and replied, 'Sir, there is a law in France prohibiting a crucifix in the hospital.' The American left the hospital with a new idea of the tolerance of this infidel government to those who find their greatest solace in religion.

"They have already torn the image of the Crucified Son of God from the schools and hospitals and other institutions of France, but that is merely a beginning.

"Their purpose is to drag the love of God from the hearts of men, and especially to keep religious instruction away from the children of France. But they cannot keep the religion of God from Catholic hearts.

"These infidels are worse than pagans. The pagan believes in God and in a hereafter, where the good are rewarded, but the infidel does not. Pagans have some virtues mixed with their vices, but the modern infidel has all the vices without any of the redeeming virtues of a pagan."

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against Opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Make a note now to get Ely's Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal catarrh, hay fever or cold in the head. It is purifying and soothing to the sensitive membrance that line the air-passages. It is made to cure the disease, not to fool the patient by a short, deceptive relief. There is no cocaine nor mercury in it. Do not be talked into taking a substitute for Ely's Cream Balm. All druggists sell it. Price 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Refused to Disclose Boy's Name.

Refusing to give the name of the boy who set fire to her clothing, little Mary Vivian, 12 years old, died yesterday in the City Hospital, Newark, N. J., in great agony. Though every effort was made by her father and the police to have her disclose the name of the boy who fired her clothing, the child refused to divulge his name, fearing that her father would punish the lad and get himself in trouble.

"Papa would hurt him," she said to the police, "and then he would be taken to jail. I don't want to see my papa go to jail."

Thus spoke the brave little girl whenever an attempt was made to learn the name of the boy.

The child was walking on the sidewalk in front of her father's shop when the boy came along and, getting behind her, set fire to her clothing with a match. Before she was aware what had taken place she was enveloped in flames.

She ran screaming into the store, but before her father succeeded in extinguishing the flames she was frightfully burned about the face and body. In the excitement following the boy made his escape.

Mr. Vivian, the girl's father, vowed vengeance on the boy and threatened to punish him should he be caught. Mary heard her father and though every means was employed to get her to make known the name of the boy she steadfastly refused. Just before she died her parents assured her that no harm would be done the boy if she disclosed his name, but up until the last she refused, and carried her secret to the grave.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a large tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure at F. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Boy Clawed by a Lion.

A stampede was caused at the Zoo in Baltimore yesterday when the lion Schley grabbed and clawed a lad who had fallen against his cage and had also clawed the lion trainer, who, with assistants, had to fight desperately to get the boy away.

Little Johnny Ripkin, a boy of twelve, had come to the Zoo with his mother and sister and brother. The boy got on a radiator to get a better view of Schley, the star of the Zoo. In his eagerness to see the animal he lost his balance and fell against the railing. Immediately the lion sprang up, and, seizing the boy by the head, drew him toward the cage.

He was clawing the shrieking boy when Louis Balestrier, the lion tamer, and two assistants rushed to the rescue.

Balestrier pluckily seized Suhley by the lower jaw and the lion dropped the boy, and began clawing Balestrier's free hand. As the attendants picked up the boy, the lion again grabbed him, but this time only got his jacket. The attendants drew the boy out of the cage and so got him away.

Meanwhile the other animals became aroused by the excitement and set up a chorus of howls. Some one shouted "The animals are loose," and a mad rush was made for the exit. The officers on duty at once closed the doors and prevented a serious panic. Several were trampled upon, but no one was seriously hurt. There were nine scalp wounds on the boy, but his wounds are not serious.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 2, 1907.

THE NEWSPAPERS, as usual during the first week of January, are publishing the deaths and injuries resulting from the insanity prevalent on the last night of the year. The New York Tribune says that city was in need of the services of the foolkiller early yesterday morning when nine false alarms of fire and a dangerous fusilade of revolver shots in the streets added to the excitement attending the noisy orgy which welcomed 1907. The promiscuous shooting in the streets resulted in many wounds, but fortunately did not cause any deaths. The ambulance surgeons were kept as busy as the firemen responding to calls. In almost every case, however, they contented themselves with dressing a gunshot wound and leaving the sufferer at home. The stray bullets seemed to have had the knack of avoiding vital parts of the bodies, merely cutting slight furrows in scalps, clipping off ears or fingers, or imbedding themselves in fleshy parts of legs. Among the many results of foolhardiness was the fate of a man in Tuscarora, Pa., who had his left leg blown off and was injured otherwise by the premature explosion of dynamite he was using in hailing the advent of the New Year. In Wilkesbarre, Pa., a man bearing a Russian name, upon hearing the noise incident to the arrival of 1907, seemed to have suddenly gone crazy, and jumping from his bed, seized a revolver, loaded it with ball cartridges and began firing it from the window of his room. A man who was passing at the time received one of the bullets in his breast and was killed instantly. Elsewhere in the Gazette it will be seen that a boy in Newark, N. J., while celebrating the holiday season deliberately set fire to the clothing of a little girl and she was burned so seriously that her death followed. It would seem that the time has come when some radical steps should be taken to put a stop to such dangerous procedures. Many dread the approach of certain holidays on account of the danger experienced from wild-eyed persons who seem to lose their heads on such occasions.

PROMPT alignment of the opposing elements of the republican party that seek to control the next national republican convention and dictate the presidential nomination may be expected to follow statements made last Saturday by Secretary of War Taft that, while he is not a candidate and does not consider himself available, he will accept the nomination in 1908 if it comes to him. This statement was put out because of a report asserting in effect that Secretary Taft's friends had at last induced him to allow the use of his name as a candidate for the presidential nomination. The Secretary's comment in the report was given in the Gazette's Washington correspondence on Saturday. His statement gives the friends of Secretary Taft full liberty to do what they can to work up sentiment and effect an organization in his interest. Up to the present they have been handicaped in their efforts to crystallize sentiment for him by his reluctant and noncommital attitude. They could not say with authority that he would be a candidate. In the absence of such assurance they found it difficult to accomplish anything. Now they will commence their campaign in his behalf. Well, if a republican is to be elected next time let us hope that it may be Secretary Taft, for he is the squarest man in his party today.

THE FAILURE of Col. Slemp and the republican leaders to aid Mr. Simmons in his proposed contest for the seat in Congress to which Judge Sanders, of the Fifth district, was recently elected, brings out the statement that Col. Slemp and his son, Bascomb, the chairman of the State republican committee, did little or nothing to aid Mr. Simmons in the general election. The reasons are obvious. Col. Slemp, being the only republican Congressman from Virginia, is "the whole thing" with the administration in Washington and quite naturally wants no one to divide with him the naming of federal officers in Virginia and the other sole privileges which he enjoys. A little power has turned his head, which is not strong at best, and this, it is believed by his familiars, will be his undoing—and this in the near future.

From Washington.

Washington, Jan. 2.

In an interview today Secretary of the Treasury Shaw indicated pretty strongly that the United States is not going to indulge in a discriminatory tariff war with other countries. He said that the efforts being made to induce this government to impose one duty upon goods imported into the United States on ships belonging to one country and to assess different, or discriminatory, duties on imports coming from another country, was to advocate exactly the policy to which we were objecting in the case of Germany.

"We may make pets of ourselves," he declared. By our tariffs, or by aid extended to our merchant marine, we may favor ourselves. But when it comes to dealing with other nations we have no favorites."

The question has been given some prominence because of an effort by Mr. John S. Wise, formerly of Virginia but now a New York lawyer, to instill life into a moribund section of the Dingley tariff law which authorizes the imposition of a discriminating duty of ten per cent, over and above the regular tariffs, on goods imported in foreign ships unless they shall be otherwise provided for by treaty or convention. Mr. Wise thinks that if this section were put into force the United States Government could raise an additional revenue of about $27,000,000 a year. He says that the Government should itself take the subject up to higher courts.

In order to do this it would be necessary for the Secretary of the Treasury to direct the imposition of the discriminatory duties and it would then be up to the importer to make an appeal. The probabilities are, however, that, instead of doing this, an inquiry will be made as to whether any country is imposing extra duties on goods imported in American vessels. If so, the President could issue a proclamation enforcing the retaliation provided by law.

The question of employing Chinese labor on the Isthmian canal is still in abeyance, pending the opening of bids for the general construction on January 12. Two bids have been received for furnishing Chinese coolie labor, and in case it is determined to use Chinese, one or the other of these bids may be accepted. A report that Jackson Smith, the director of labor on the Isthmus, has announced that no Chinese will be employed is considered unwarranted here.

Senator Lafollette is preparing a bill to withdraw from sale all coal and mineral lands in the public domain. His idea is to lease the lands and to secure a royalty from each ton of coal and each barrel of oil. The subject is one in which the President is deeply interested and it is understood that the measure to be introduced will receive his emphatic endorsement.

The majority of the funerals of the victims of the Terra Cotta railroad disaster will take place today. All day streets leading to the suburbs will be traversed by funeral corteges. All the victims of the wreck have been identified at the morgue except ng one. The body of this one has been so badly multilated that it is impossible to recognize it. It is expected that District Attorney Baker, who was injured in the wreck, will be out in a few days. He is improving rapidly.

C. H. Hobbs, superintendent of the Metropoliton branch of the B. & O., on which the wreck at Terra Cotta occurred Sunday night, was on the stand a large part of the morning during the progress of the investigation before Coroner Nevitt. He stated that the conductor of the extra train had told him that he could see no signal light displayed at Takoma, but that at Silver Springs, on the other side of Takoma from the wreck, two green lights were displayed which means to "proceed slowly." Asked what was the rule of the road where no lights were displayed at a block station, he answered that the general instructions were to stop and investigate. However, Takoma ceased to be a block station at 6:30 each evening, the work of signalling trains being taken up by the Silver Springs station after that hour for the rest of the night. Superintendent Hobbs said it was his opinion that the wreck was caused by the employes disobedience of orders. He could not say, he added, what employes were responsible. The inquest is proceeding slowly and will consume at least a week.

A report of a revolutionary outbreak of small dimensions at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, was received at the State Department today. The disturbance was of a revolutionary nature, but the American consul says that it was only of slight extent.

Von Buelow Attacks Clerical Party.

Berlin, Jan. 2.—A direct attack on the clerical party and its domination by the Vatican is made by Chancellor von Buelow today. The assumption of this attitude by the government, coming at a time when France is engaged in a hot struggle with the church, is regarded as of extreme significance. The manifesto is in the form of a letter to General Liebert, the president of the German anti-socialist league. In it Prince von Buelow declares the political predominance of the ultra-montanes, or clerical party, is intolerable. The ultramontanes receive their instructions from the Vatican and are not patriotic Germans. It is preferable von Buelow points out, that the liberal and radical parties should be strengthened rather than the clericals This indicates the Kaiser is willing to make concessions to the progressive party provided they will support a strong foreign colonial military and naval policy expansion and a return to domestic reforms.

Woman Shot at Judge.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—Incensed at his recent decision in a partition suit in the case of the estate of her father, August Weil, Miss Rosa Weil attempted to assassinate Judge Jesse A. McDonald, in the circuit court today. Miss Weil's aim was unsteady and the bullet went wild, but passed dangerously close to the judge's head. He showed wonderful composure, and after the excited woman had been overpowered and the revolver torn from her hands, ordered her taken to the private office of the Sheriff. Judge McDonald then resumed hearing court motions. "I ought to have got him," Miss Weil was heard to exclaim as she and her sister Clara, who had been sitting near her, in court, were taken from the room.

Thaw Declared Insane.

New York, Jan. 2.—Dr. Charles L. Dana, the noted alienist, who, with Dr. Allan McLean Hamilton, examined Harry K. Thaw shortly after he killed Stanford White, announced today that Thaw was undoubtedly insane. The fact that Dr. Hamilton has already stated that Thaw is insane and has been so for years, and that Dr. Dana, who was also retained by Thaw's counsel, agrees with him, makes it evident that the defense for the killing of the architect will be insanity.

Steamer's Cargo Burning.

Halifax, N. S, Jan. 2.—With her cargo on fire the steamer Cointoor from Galveston to Liverpool, is entering this harbor. It is not known to what extent the ship is damaged, but reports indicate that heavy loss will result.

Mrs. Virginia Ellis, widow of James Ellis, died in Washington yesterday. The deceased was 78 years old.

News of the Day.

Governor Charles E. Hughes, of New York, in taking office yesterday declared for purity in the public service.

Funerals of a number of the Baltimore and Ohio wreck victims were held in Washington yesterday and many others took place today.

Governor Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, in his message to the legislature yesterday courted an investigation into the State Capitol scandal.

An astonishing change of feeling toward President Roosevelt on the part of Englishmen is making itself evident in signs which are not to be mistaken.

Mayor McClellan, of New York, came out openly today in his fight with Charles F. Murphy and declared he would not recognized the leader of Tammany Hall or have any relations with him.

Charles and Mary Gassert, parents of the baby whose dead body they deserted on Crowded Sedond Avenue, New York, a month ago, were discharged in court today it being shown the babe death was accidental.

Assemblyman Murphy today introduced in the New York legislature a bill providing for a recount of the votes in the New York mayoralty contest of 1905. Mayor McClellan returned to New York today and will begin to fight the measure.

The Consolidated Steamship Lines Company, with an authorized capitalization of $60,000,000, was organized at Portland, Maine, yesterday to conduct a general steamship business. The company will control the steamship lines owned by Charles W. Morse.

The deadlock among the republicans of the House in Delaware was broken, yesterday; both branches of the legislature were organized and the governor's message was read. The indications now are that Henry A. Richardson will be elected United States Senator from Delaware.

The arrest of Congressman E. Spencer Blackborn, republican, on a charge of criminal libel, was ordered by Governor Robert B. Glenn, of North Carolina, yesterday, in return for the attack made on him by the Congressman, who is contesting the Eighth district seat won from him by Richard N. Hackett, democrat.

Robert C. Castleberg, formerly of Washington, a member of the firm of Castleberg's National Jewelry Company, of Washington, and who mysteriously disappeared about eighteen months ago, after losing a large sum of money in gambling, is said to have been located in China.

Two men were killed and two others were fatally injured yesterday by the bursting of a steam pipe at the Pressed Steel Car Company's plant at Schoenville, a suburb of Pittsburg, Pa. The four men were repairing a twelve-inch steam pipe which bore a pressure of 140 pounds direct from sixteen large boilers, when, without warning, the pipe burst, throwing the men from a platform to the floor twenty feet below.

The storm which passed over Great Britain at Christmas time reached western Russia, where enormous falls of snow are reported and railroad communication is paralyzed, many of the lines being entirely interrupted. Dispatches from Orsha and Borrissov say those towns are literally buried in drifts and all business is suspended. Seven persons have perished in the snow which has reached a seven-foot level at Mohilev. The snow storm continues.

A brutal assault was committed upon Irene Nave, the 10-year-old daughter of Bradley Nave at Williamsport, Md., residing near the Pinesburg quarries, along the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, yesterday, by a white man, who is said to be known in the community, and who escaped, though hotly pursued by officers and a posse of men headed by the child's father. It is said that the assault was of the character which calls for the death penalty. The child's screams and the timely arrival of her mother upon the scene probably saved her life. The man had a knife, with which he slashed his victim's clothing and threatened her life. He bit the child in the face, and subjected her to other rough treatment.

HERMAN KNOCKED OUT.

Joseph Gans, of Baltimore, the colored boxer, is still the lightweight champion of the world. In a fight before the Casino A. C., in Tonopah, Nev., yesterday evening, Gans knocked Kid Herman, of Chicago, out in the eighth round. The result was never in doubt from the moment the men first put up their hands, for it was generally conceded that Gans outclassed his inexperienced opponent in every detail. Gans was never in better shape. Although he scaled under the lightweight limit of 133 pounds, he was as strong as a bull and even faster than in his recent 42-round mill with Battling Nelson.

Gans was regarded as a sure winner, and from the outset he demonstrated that Herman had no business in the ring with him. Herman devoted his time in the early part of the fight to punching Gans in the body. But his blows did not have the power to do the intended damage. As the battle progressed Gans gradually seized the Chicago boy up, and when he finally cut loose with his famous attack Herman looked like a novice. Gans drew blood from Herman's nose in the first round and scored a knockdown in the third.

It was in the sixth that Gans began to fight with all his skill and strength, with the result that Herman was almost knocked through the ropes. After that, in spite of Herman's pluck he was forced to take a terrific beating. He was cut over the eye with an uppercut in the seventh round, and was put to sleep in the eighth round.

Herman was knocked out as clean as a whistle. After the battle Tex Rickard, who pulled off the Gans-Nelson fight at Goldfield, repeated his offer, made before the mill, of a $50,000 purse for Gans to meet the Dane again at Goldfield. Manager Riley, of the Tonopah Club, quickly came to the scratch with a similar offer, at the same time declaring that he would equal the bid of any of the Nevada promoters for this proposed mill. Riley, it is understood, will offer $30,000 for Gans to meet Jimmy Britt. Gans said last night that he would take on Nelson again for one of the $50,000 purses as soon as the Dane was ready to sign articles.

Virginia News.

The new rates between all-telegraph offices in Virginia went into effect today.

Mrs. Emma Poarch, who was shot by her husband, Emmett Poarch, in Petersburg, Monday night, died of her wounds late yesterday afternoon.

William Armstrong died yesterday at his home, near Antioch Church, Stafford county, of gangrene, aged 90 years. He was the oldest citizen of that county.

According to the Richmond authorities the two men who held up and robbed the Seaboard Air Line train Monday night are known, but no arrests have been made.

The valuable estate known as Cedar Point, situated on the Mobjack Bay, Mathews county, near Phillpot's landing, Virginia, has been sold to Mr. John J. Naubaur, of Bridgeport, Conn.

Mrs. Camille Conley, wife of Thomas Conley, of Wardensville, Frederick county, was so terribly burned as the result of the explosion of a lamp which she attempted to light Monday evening that she died yesterday in intense agony.

Governor Swanson has appointed Mr. H. R. Shade, of Herndon, Fairfax county, as one of the delegates to attend the convention which is to be held in Washington under the auspices of the Boards of Trade of New York, Chicago and Boston for the purpose of increasing the foreign commerce of the United States.

The New Year reception at the Governor's mansion in Richmond last night was a brilliant affair. The visitors were received in the reception parlor, to the right of the entrance, and callers then passed to the drawing room. Among those who received were Mrs. Swanson, and Miss Liza Anderson, of this city. The mansion was beautifully decorated.

The corporation commission in Richmond next Tuesday will take up the two-cent passenger rate question. It is in the power of the commission to require this rate of such roads as may appear able to bear the burden, while allowing present rates to continue in force on other roads. It is probable that a number of smaller roads in the State will not be disturbed. The interesting statement was made yesterday that the Pennsylvania and its Virginia connections—the C. & O. and N. & W.—would not fight the proposed two-cent rate. If this should prove to be true, it will doubtless have weight to induce other principal roads to accept the new rate.

Hot Shot for Protestants.

"Every one who knows the emptiness of the pews in nearly all the Protestant churches in New York, knows that, so far as Protestants are concerned, New Yorkers have ceased to be a church-going people." This strong statement was read by Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters Saturday night, in his farewell sermon as pastor of Epiphany Baptist Church, New York. Continuing he said:

"The failure of the church to reach the people is not only a numerical failure—numbers do not always represent power and influence. But it is a failure of quality as well as quantity. By far the vast majority of the people of this city never enter a Protestant church except possibly to attend a funeral or witness a wedding."

Dr. Peters will begin next Sunday morning his people's meetings, in the Majestic Theatre, to become, as he puts it, "a minister for who may need his services, regardless of race or creed, instead of a private chaplain owned by the privileged class."

Fight for Life With Bear.

While hunting in the woods four miles this side of McCoy's store in Laidy township, Pa., Saturday, Albert Calhoun came upon a small cave, and, peering in, saw an animal move. A moment later a 400 pound black bear came shambling out of his winter quarters. Rising upon his hind legs he rushed toward the thoroughly frightened young man who raised his rifle and fired. This added fury to the engaged beast, who made a rush and succeeded in knocking the young hunter down. In a lying posture Calhoun again pulled the trigger of his rifle and sent a bullet into the animal's brain, which brought the big bear to the ground.

County Detective J. H. Keller heard the shots and made an investigation. He found both the man and bear on the ground and at first thought both were dead or injured from the amount of blood in sight, but soon found that Calhoun was little injured.

"Jack the Snipper" Captured.

Boston Jan. 2.—Boston's long-sought "Jack the Snipper" was caught by the police yesterday and what is more he was "caught with the goods." He gives the name of Frank Gallo and claims to live at No. 568 East Broadway. For three years girls of Boston and the suburbs have suffered by having their long braids of hair cut off. The police have used every means to capture the hair thief, but in vain. Emboldened by his success, Gallo yesterday shipped a beautiful braid from the head of Miss Margaret E. Quinlan, while she was walking on Fremont Row, one of the busiest streets in the shopping district. Several women saw the act and gave the alarm. Although Gallo made a great sprint he was captured. When searched five braids and a pair of long shears were found on him. Several girls have identified him as the man who cut their braids.

Twenty Year Battle.

"I was a loser in a twenty-year battle with chronic piles and malignant sores, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; which turned the tide, by curing both, till not a trace remains," writes A. M. Pastor's Wife Gets Divorce.

A decree of divorce was on Saturday, in Sioux Falls, granted to Mrs. Florence Halliday Brown, formerly of New York city, who, while her husband, the Rev. Charles N. Brown, was preaching in Brooklyn, created a sensation by appearing as a vaudeville singer and dancer, doing this she explained to help educate her son. Mrs. Brown is a granddiece of Sir Andrew Halliday, who was knighted by Queen Victoria for his musical ability and last February she failed to secure a divorce in New York on the strength of an alleged confession made to her by her reverend husband in reference to his alleged wrong-doing while filling a pastorate at Williamsburg, N. Y.

Today's Telegraphic News

Fire in New York.

New York, Jan. 2.—Thousands of tenement dwellers were driven from their homes early today and two whole blocks were menaced by one of the fiercest blazes of the winter, while the firemen stood looking on helpless to fight the flames because of lack of water pressure. Water in the boilers of the fire engines ran low and the crews were forced to draw the fire from under them to prevent explosions. While the fire was burning its fiercest, and the streets about the blazing tenements were packed with scantily clad people, a score of horses loosened from a stable in which the flames are believed to have started, stampeded in the street and threw the crowds into a frenzy, at the same time dashing into the fire department horses and almost stampeding them. To add to the confusion negro robbers rushed into the burning buildings and looted the tenements deserted by their panic-stricken owners. One negro was caught in the act and a dozen shots were fired at him as he tried to escape, and before he was laid out from a patrolman's night stick. The fire was started in a livery stable at 429 and 431 west Fifty-third street.

With the street filled with half-clothed men and women, the former cursing and the latter crying hysterically, the police who had worked frantically to save residents of the tenements, a number of whom were ill and others overcome with smoke were called upon to meet a new trouble in the form of a threatened race riot.

All of the buildings in the region of the fire had been practically emptied and a number of thrilling rescues effected when the cry that negro thieves were looting the buildings was raised. The police scattered and entered the burning buildings.

At No. 428 west Fifth-third street six negroes with loot were encountered by the officers. A desperate fight was waged in the smoke-filled hallways which ended in the rout of the thieves and their disappearance in the crowd after the officers had drawn their night sticks.

A few minutes later a negro snatched a bag of trinkets from a woman at Fifty-third street and Tenth avenue and then knocked her down when she screamed. A crowd started in pursuit and a dozen shots were fired at the man before he was brought down by the officers' night sticks.

Then the report of the negro outrages reached the throngs in the vicinity of the fire and a negro hunt was started. A dozen inoffensive colored people were badly beaten before the officers could interfere. Other negroes in the crowd took the tip from the police and hustled to their homes.

The firemen worked heroically and after great difficulty got the fire under control. A number of persons had narrow escapes and others received injuries.

Up to noon no deaths had resulted, but it is believed that fatalities will certainly result from the injuries a number sustained and from the exposure to which others were subjected.

The property loss is estimated at upwards of $100,000.

Hicks Afflicted with Stage Fright.

Los Angeles, Cala., Jan. 2.—L. B. Hicks, who for fifteen days was buried alive in a tunnel at Bakersfield, made his debut Tuesday night as an actor. Such was his stage fright that it was pitiable to see his terror. Hicks had been coached thoroughly and had committed to memory the story of his amazing escape from death. At the last moment he balked. He refused to go on the stage at all, and declared he did not care what his manager lost. He finally consented to take a seat in the front row and answer such questions as were put to him. When the first question was asked he demanded a chew of tobacco before answering. Then he sat sullenly and answered questions in monosyllables and grunts until the crowd that paid to see him became weary and left the hall.

Killed in New Year's Fight.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 2.—The new year was ushered in with a bloody fight in Pine Top, Knott county, in which Harrison Stone, Walter Hanks and Walter Thomas were killed, and others were wounded. On account of the inaccessibility of the section in which the fight occurred, complete details of the tragedy have not been secured. Stone, Hanks, Thomas and others met at a country dance in Pine Top. There had been ill feeling between the Stone and Thomas families for years, and the men quarrelled. They and their friends were put out of the house and a general fight ensued.

McCrea Elected President.

Philadelphia, Jan. 2.—James McCrea has been elected President of the Pennsylvania Railroad, to succeed the late President Cassatt. President McCrea authorized the following statement after the meeting of the Board of Directors:

"The policy of the Pennsylvania Railroad does not depend upon any one man. It continues unchanged from year to year. It will be my purpose to promote, as best I can, the same progressive development which was conducted so ably by President Cassatt and the presidents who preceded him."

Gov. Hughes's Message.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2.—General consternation was caused in both political parties and among the legislative representatives of municipal and State corporations today when Governor Hughes in his message to the legislature, urged reforms of radical nature to correct the present corporate abuses. The message was short and to the point. Not one politician in Albany had an inkling of its contents, and Governor Hughes gave no one the opportunity to make any "little suggestions."

Boy Charged With Murder.

Philadelphia, Jan. 2.—Samuel Jeffries, eleven years old, is under arrest today on a charge of murder as the result of a fight with another boy growing out of the theft of a little New Year's horn. Jeffries is said by the police to have snatched the horn from two smaller boys. Edward Shane, fourteen years old, saw him and took the horn away after a short chase. This angered Jefferies, who is said to have seized a club and struck Shane over the head. Shane died before he reached the hospital.

Another Terrible Railroad Accident.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 2.—Passenger train No. 29, westbound, and No. 30, eastbound, on the Rock Island Railroad, collided between Volland and Alta Vista, this morning, and, according to G. W. Rourke, superintendent of the Kansas division, in his report to headquarters here, thirty persons were killed and forty injured. Ten bodies have been recovered from the smoker of No. 29, nine of which are Mexicans. The smoker seemed to suffer most. It was loaded with Mexican laborers. The baggage car raised the smoker's roof and lodged on the smoker's occupants, crushing them. The baggage car, two chair cars and one tourist sleeper of No. 29, were burned. The rescue work is now being carried on. Both trains are known as the Texas & California fast mail going in opposite directions. Train 29 left Chicago Tuesday morning en route to El Paso. No. 30 was due in Chicago at 10:30 tonight.

ANOTHER DISPATCH.

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 2.—From reports received more than thirty persons are believed to be killed and scores injured in the head-on collision of two passenger trains on the Rock Island Railroad near Alta Vista, Kansas, today.

The southbound train, made up of ten coaches, three of them Pullman cars, was heavily crowded, and it was this train that bore the brunt of the wreck and most of the dead and injured were on it. It left Chicago yesterday morning at 8:30 bound for El Paso, Texas.

It is believed the crews of both engines were killed instantly. According to dispatches most of the killed were Mexicans who were in the forward coaches of the southbound train. The cause of the catastrophe has not yet been learned. Since the opening of the tourist season for California points all westbound passenger trains from Chicago have been steadily crowded, and when the news of the wreck was first received it caused great consternation.

John Lynes the telegraph operator at Volland, has disappeared. He for some reason had failed to deliver the order holding one of the trains.

Lynes fled before the wreck occurred, after first forecasting the impending collision. Five minutes before the trains met he called up the dispatcher and wired him as follows: "Number 29 has gone and I have gone also."

Strike Threatened.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 2.—"Arbitrate or settle the Southern Pacific strike or suffer a walk out of the firemen on all your lines" is in brief an ultimatum sent E. H. Harriman Tuesday night by Grand Master John J. Hanrahan, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers. Mr. Hanrahan will not stand for delay, his ultimatum says. Unless an immediate reply is received from Harriman, the firemen on the following lines will be called out: Illinois Central, Union Pacific, Chicago & Alton, Baltimore & Ohio, Oregon Short Line, Kansas City Southern, and all lines of the Southern Pacific not now affected. The Brotherhood is preparing itself for a long struggle and is feeling the pulse of men on the other Harriman lines.

Negroes Condemn President.

Raleigh, N. C. Jan. 2.—The issuing of an address severely criticising President Roosevelt for his action in dismissing the negro battalion involved in the Brownsville riots was the feature of the Emancipation Day celebration by negroes yesterday. President Roosevelt's action is described as hasty and calculated to show that slavery was right and the emancipation of the negro a mistake. There is no effort made to shield the men guilty of the Brownsville riots. Those responsible should have been singled out for punishment instead of discharging the entire battalion.

British Cruisers Coming.

London, Jan. 2.—The British government has just announced that it will send several of her best armored cruisers to take part in the ceremonies at the opening of the Jamestown exposition, this spring. Rear Admiral George Neville will command the visiting fleet.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 2.—The market started the new year's business with a general upward movement, the prices of nearly all the issues traded in making some material gains in the first hour. The Hill stocks were prominent in activity and strength. Atchison and Baltimore & Ohio were strong. Reading for a time showed weakness, but soon joined the rest of the list.

After chasing a highwayman for a mile and cornering him early today in New York, John Casey was fatally clubbed by the footpads, who made good his escape through a crowd of men. The murder occurred in the Bronx.

LEGAL NOTICES.

VIRGINIA.—In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, on the 13th day of December 1906

Catherine Makely, complainant, vs. Mary L. Makely, Carrie O. Makely, Kate E. Makely, Hallie A. Makely, Richard Lee Makely, an infant of the age of eighteen years; the Southern Railway Company, the Citizens' National Bank of Alexandria, Va., Sanders P. Jones and Lawrence Jones, joint merchants and partners trading under the firm name and style of Paul Jones and Company; Clara F. Marbury, executrix of the last will and testament of Leonard Marbury, deceased; Grace B. Kicherer and Fred Kicherer, defendants. In chancery.

The object of this suit is:

First, To have the last will and testament of Gotlieb Appieb, deceased, construed and interpreted, and its true meaning established herein, and that it may be adjudged and declared that David A. Makely, deceased, had no interest, right or title in and to the square of ground situate in the city of Alexandria, and State of Virginia, bounded by Henry, Fayette, Wolfe and Wilkes streets, and that neither his heirs or assigns or his creditors have any claim upon or right to the fund under the control of the court in this cause, being a part of the proceeds of the sale of said square of ground, and that a decree may be entered directing the payment of the said fund amounting to fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500 00) to the complainant and to her daughters, defendants in this suit.

Second. For a settlement of the account of Leonard Marbury, trustee, under a deed of trust from David A. Makely, bearing date the first day of July, A. D., 1899. An affidavit having been made that the defendants, Sanders P. Jones and Lawrence Jones, joint merchants and partners trading under the firm name and style of Paul Jones and Company, and Clara F. Marbury, executrix of the last will and testament of Leonard Marbury, deceased, are not residents of this State, the said defendants are required to appear within fifteen days after due publication of this order, in the Clerk's Office of our said court, as rule is to be holden therefor, and do what is necessary to protect their interests in this suit, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of the said city on or before the next rule day after the date of this order.

Loyalists Chartered.

A dispatch from Newport News to the Norfolk Ledger says that the fight between the "Loyalists" and "Insurgents" of the Jr. O. U. A. M., of this State, after having gone from the Corporation Court of Richmond to the Supreme Court of the United States, will have to go through probably the same course again.

After winning their fight in the highest court in the land and getting an injunction from the court restraining the "Loyalists" from doing business in this State, the Corporation Commission on Saturday, according to the reports of Monday, granted the "Loyalists" in this State, who number about 15,000 and possess many thousands of dollars of property in the name of Jr. O. U. A. M., articles of incorporation in the name of the Junior Order United Americans with the object and purposes which they are restrained from using.

State Councillor R. C. Fellows yesterday stated that there will be a meeting called for the executive board next week in Richmond to decide upon action.

The executive committee met in Newport News Saturday night expecting to receive a delegation from the "Loyalists," but none appeared.

At that time the "Insurgents," who have been the victors in all the courts, did not know of the charter having been granted.

Judge Grinnan, of Richmond, who was upheld in the Court of Appeals, in this State, and the Supreme Court of the United States, will be asked to grant another injunction and maintain the position that he first assumed and which has been upheld.

He Didn't Want to Kill Her.

Mr. A. Powell Brookes, of Alexandria, who is in custody in Winchester charged with attempting to shoot Mrs. Alexander M. Baker at the Winchester Memorial Hospital Saturday night, made a statement yesterday through his attorney in which he disclaims any attention of killing Mrs. Baker. He says he only intended to frighten her.

"I took exceptions to what I thought was the unkind attitude of Mrs. Baker toward me," he said, "and merely to scare her I took my pistol out and pointed it at her. When she became alarmed and summoned assistance I handed the weapon to the head nurse at the hospital. I knew what I was doing, but then, you know, when a fellow is nervous and unstrung he is impulsive and irritable and is liable to do things which he lives afterward to regret. It is an unfortunate affair and I deplore the notoriety which Mrs. Baker's visit has caused her and my family."

While Mrs. Baker and her daughter, Miss Virginia Cabell Baker, have left town to avoid notoriety, it is said that young Brookes will probably be released upon giving a peace bond and promising to leave the city. He indicated his willingness to do this and his friends are working toward that end.

The law firm of Norton & Boothe, of this city, has been retained by the father of Mr. Brookes and these gentlemen expect to arrange everything satisfactorily to all concerned in this unfortunate affair.

Gift to Supt. Peyton.

Mr. G. V. Peyton, assistant superintendent of the Danville division of the Southern Railway, was presented, on December 25th, with a $400 diamond ring by the employes of the A. & Y. and Wilkesboro branches, and friends in the office, as a mark of esteem and appreciation of his kind and courteous treatment of the employes at all times. The men assembled in another office and Mr. Peyton was sent for, and the ring was presented by Conductor C. B. Guthrie, one of the oldest and most popular conductors on the branch lines. He made a brief and beautiful talk and Mr. Peyton replied with appropriate remarks of appreciation. This ring was purchased of Schiffman Jewelry Company and is one of the handsomest rings that has ever been sent out from that establishment. Mr. Peyton has been connected with these men off and on for several years, but has been closely connected with them since June 1st, and is indeed a popular man with all the employes. He has been promoted to the position of superintendent of the Durham division and will leave for Durham January 1st.—[Greensboro, N. C. Record.

Personal.

The Gazette will be pleased to receive items, such as engagements, weddings, parties, teas and other news of personal interest for the "personal" column. The items should be indorsed with the name and address of the sender—not for publication, but as a matter of good faith.

Madame Pastor, who was Miss Constance Lee, of Baltimore, is again taking her part in the social world, her husband, Mr. Pastor, the Spanish charge, who was threatened with typhoid fever, having recovered. Madame Pastor will take part in some tableaux to be given January 14 for the House of Mercy at an entertainment being gotten up by the capital's social leaders.—[Baltimore American.

Miss Edmo C. Lee, daughter of Captain Dan. M. Lee, of "Highland Home," near Fredericksburg, will sail for Cuba January 15th to visit her brother, Lieutenant Smith Lee, who is connected with the United States army in Cuba. She will be accompanied by Miss Lizzie Brander, of Richmond, who also has a brother in the United States army now stationed in Cuba.

Miss Lula Smoot, very delightfully entertained a number of friends at a New Year's Eve party given at her home on St. Asaph street on Monday night.

Rev. J. R. Sevier, of Lynchburg, who recently accepted the call to the Second Presbyterian Church in this city, will reach here this evening. He will conduct the prayer meeting in the church tonight.

Miss Beatrice Crawford, of Alexandria, will leave for home tomorrow after being the guest of the Misses Stewart, at "Brook Hill."—[Norfolk Ledger.

Two young democratic leaders of prominence and popularity from the city of Alexandria arrived here last night in the persons of Senator Lewis H. Machen and Mr. Charles C. Carlin, and they are registered at the Richmond. Messrs. Machen and Carlin come primarily to attend Governor Swanson's reception, but they have some business matters of more or less importance to look after here today. When asked if he expected to stand for re-election next fall, Senator Machen said he did not know definitely, though he rather thought he would. "There are some reasons why I would like to serve another term," he continued. "I would be gratified to see some of the reforms I offered at the last session carried forward, such, for instance, as the constitutional amendment restoring the old ninety-day feature to the terms of legislators, and there are other matters I would like to see got through. But I do not know yet what I will do about standing again."—[Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Funerals.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Harriet Fuller Ansley, wife of Mr. Harrie C. Ansley, Treasurer of the Southern Railway Company, took place this morning from her residence, 813 Prince street, Rev. Wm. J. Morton, of Christ Church, and Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, officiated. The services were attended by a large number of relatives and friends from this city and from a distance. The floral tributes were beautiful. The interment, which was private, was in the family lot in the Presbyterian cemetery. The pallbearers were President W. W. Finley; Comptroller A. H. Plant, and Assistant Treasurer E. F. Parham, of the Southern Railway Company, and Messrs. Carroll W. Ashby, Wm. B. Smoot and Hubert Snowden, of this city. As stated yesterday, Mrs. Ansley is survived by her husband and five children—Mrs. James Corbitt, of Suffolk, and Mrs. Albert Smoot, Miss Annie C. Ansley, and Louis and Urquhart Ansley, of this city.

The remains of the late Jonah H. White, who died in New York last Sunday arrived in this city this morning, and were conveyed to the residence of Mrs. John T. Hill, 211 south Royal street. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock, from St. Mary's Church, where high mass was celebrated. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Kelly, and the pallbearers were Messrs. R. F. Knox, Levi Hurdle, Alex. Lyles, M. L. Price, C. A. Yohe and Thos. N. Scott. The interment was in St. Mary's cemetery.

The funeral of John B. Murray was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Grace Church. The services were conducted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, and interment was in Union cemetery.

Police Court.

The Police Court disposed of but two cases this morning, those of two owners of real estate who had neglected to connect their premises with sewers. The delinquents were dismissed upon promising to comply with the law.

Will Borrow a Gallows.

Unless the Governor interferes or the Court of Appeals takes action Howard Banks, colored, will be hanged in this city on Friday, the 11th instant. It is generally believed, however, that something will occur either to postpone the execution or to commute the death sentence. City Sergeant Cox, however, is making preparations for the execution, and has secured the loan from the sheriff of Prince William county of the portable gallows belonging to that county, if such should be needed.

Messrs. Machen and Moncure, attorneys for Banks, are in Richmond endeavoring to secure from the Governor a commutation of the death sentence.

Richmond, Jan. 2.—Senator Machen, of Alexandria, today applied to the Governor to commute the sentence of Howard Banks, who is under sentence to be executed for the murder of Thomas Elzey.

Governor Swanson has communicated with the trial Judge in Alexandria.

No Mystery.

It was stated yesterday that a hat and a number of letters addressed to C. A. Thomas, of Clinton, Md., had been found on board the old steamer Arrowsmith in one of the city docks. Mr. Thomas was communicated with and identified the letters as his property, but was unable to offer any explanation of how they got aboard the Arrowsmith. He said he had not missed them. He said, however, that he was in Alexandria last Friday and must have lost them at that time.

Not Known in Lynchburg.

City Sergeant Cox a few days ago wrote to the Sergeant of Lynchburg in reference to the unknown colored man who was killed near the union station, this city, last week, it having been said that the man was from that city. Today Sergeant Cox received a letter in reply stating that nothing was known of the man in Lynchburg.

Charter.

The Corporation Commission has granted the following charter: Sanitary Paper Bottle Company (Incorporated), Rosslyn. N. T. Engel, president. C. T. Pfluger, treasurer; E. L. Schneider, secretary—all of Washington, D. C.; William Engel, C. F. Jenkins. Capital, $10,000. Objects: Make paper bottles.

The regular weekly prayer meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening at the Children's Home on Duke street.

Leg Broken.

Benjamin Corum, colored, had one of his legs broken yesterday afternoon while aiding in placing a pontoon upon a dredging machine. The accident was caused by the pontoon falling upon Corum. The injured man was conveyed to the Alexandria Hospital where he received surgical attention.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The holidays are over—now to work.

The public schools reopened this morning, after the holidays.

The Alexandria Athletic Association Basketball Team will play the St. John's Team, of Washington tomorrow night at Schulers Hall and a good game is expected.

Margaret Robey, the eleven-year-old daughter of Mr. Augustus Robey, was painfully burned about the face while standing in her door on Prince street, near Royal, last night, by a skyrocket which was set off near-by.

The many friends of Mrs. Edward P. Roney, of 1122 Prince street, this city, regret and sympathize with her in the death of her brother, Mr. Edward H. Thompson, of Baltimore, who was president of the Maryland National Bank, of that city, and held other prominent positions.

A young man named Joseph Butler had his head painfully cut at St. Elmo about one o'clock this afternoon by the wheel of the trolley of an electric car falling upon him. He was brought to this city and received surgical aid at the Alexandria Hospital. The young man recently had one of his fingers cut off while employed at the Locktile works in this city.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the week as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

The American Magazine.

Ida M. Tarbell, who wrote Lincoln and the famous "story of Rockefeller;" William Allen White, the well-known Kansas editor; F. P. Dunne, creator of "Mrs. Dooley"; Ray Stannard Baker and Lincoln Steffens are under the leadership of John S. Philips, now editor the American Magazine.

Never before has such a brilliant group been gathered together, and they are not only contributing themselves, but are filling the magazine with the very best novels and short stories and great timely articles by other famous writers and beautiful pictures by great artists.

A Great Bargain.

The regular price for the twelve numbers of the American Magazine is $1.20—little enough as it is, but for a limited time you can get the November and December, 1906, numbers, with a full year's subscription for 1907, for a dollar, or send it now—today—before the special 14 months' offer is withdrawn. Send it by check, postal money order or a dollar bill, at the publisher's risk, to the American Magazine, 141 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 2, 1907.

Fight with a Lion.

While the Bostock animal circus was giving its matinee performance at the Coliseum building in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday afternoon, Trainer Harry Ray was attacked and seriously injured by a lion named Charlie. The lion, which had been performing, sprang upon him bearing him to the floor and immediately the audience was panic stricken. The beast grabbed Ray by the arm while on the floor and laid with his body over the trainer's prostrate form.

Ray with his free arm picked up his revolver which he had dropped on the floor when he fell and fired several shots into the face of the enraged beast who then let go of his arm and seized the man in the side.

The two attendants, Miller and Cunningham, sprang to the traps of the safety cage door and opened them, admitting into the dens the other lions used in the act. This caused the animal to release Ray, and two trainers named Galland and Joy at once rushed into the arena and drove off the beast.

The apparently lifeless body of Ray was carried to his dressing room and later received surgical attention.

The operating surgeons there found the wounds so serious they fear the arm will have to be amputated from the shoulder, and that Ray may die. Fifty-three stitches were taken in the injured man's side.

To stop a Cold with "Preventics" is safer than to let it run and cure it afterwards. Taken at the "sneeze stage" Preventics will head off all colds and Grippe, and perhaps save you from Pneumonia or Bronchitis. Preventics are little toothsome candy cold cure tablets selling in 5 cent and 25 cent boxes. If you are chilly, if you begin to sneeze, try Preventics. They will surely check the cold, and please you. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

White Labor.

A leading Virginia railroad, the name of which is withheld for obvious reasons, in asking bids for the laying of extra track in Virginia and North Carolina, stipulates that the labor shall consist entirely of whites, including Italians and other foreign labor, and that it shall be gotten entirely from locations foreign to that in which the railroad operates. The authorities of the road fear to take chances, as any attempt to use local labor in opposition to that already employed would in all probability upset the present equable labor situation.

Two hundred and forty-three miles of road are included in the work and the leading contractors of the State and country have been invited to offer bids.—[Richmond News Leader.
